A large black and white portrait of a man in a tuxedo and bow tie is the central focus. Surrounding this central image are several smaller, rectangular black and white photographs. To the top left, a young boy stands on a ledge holding a small animal. Below that, a young man smiles in a portrait. To the right of the central image, a group of people stands outdoors. Below that, a group of young women poses together. At the bottom right, two young men are shown in a close-up. Other smaller photos of children and groups are scattered around the central image, creating a collage effect.

It has been amazing to see you grow up and become the young man that you have become. We wish the best for you and always will. As your graduation day draws near
We are reminded that you are not here
It's been three long years
And yet time has not healed our pain
Our eyes are always full of tears
And we constantly shed them like rain

You were taken from us one bright
Saturday morning
After crabbing with your friends
And without any warning

This was going to be your special 18th year
Your year to shine in football
And playing music on your guitar
Being a Senior and getting your long awaited diploma
But none of this is going to happen we fear

We love you and miss you
But know you are now not alone
For your Nanny is with you
As your graduation day draws near

Louis,

It is hard to find the words we all want to say.
We miss you and wish you could be here during this time in our lives. Once a tiger, always a tiger.
One thing's for sure, you will forever be in our hearts...

SLOWDANCE

Have you ever watched kids on a merry-go-round
Or listened to the rain slapping on the ground?
Ever followed a butterfly's erratic flight
Or gazed at the sun into the fading night?
You better slow down Don't dance so fast
Time is short The music won't last
Do you run through each day on the fly
When you ask "How are you?" do you hear the reply?
When the day is done, do you lie in your bed
With the next hundred chores running through your head?
You'd better slow down Don't dance so fast
Time is short The music won't last
Ever lost touch, Let a good friendship die
'Cause you never had time to call and say "Hi"?
You'd better slow down Don't dance so fast
Time is short The music won't last
When you run so fast to get somewhere
You miss half the fun of getting there.
When you worry and hurry through your day,
It is like an unopened gift.... Thrown away..
Life is not a race. Do take it slower
Hear the music Before the song is over.

Love,
Daddy, Momma, Miranda, and Natalie

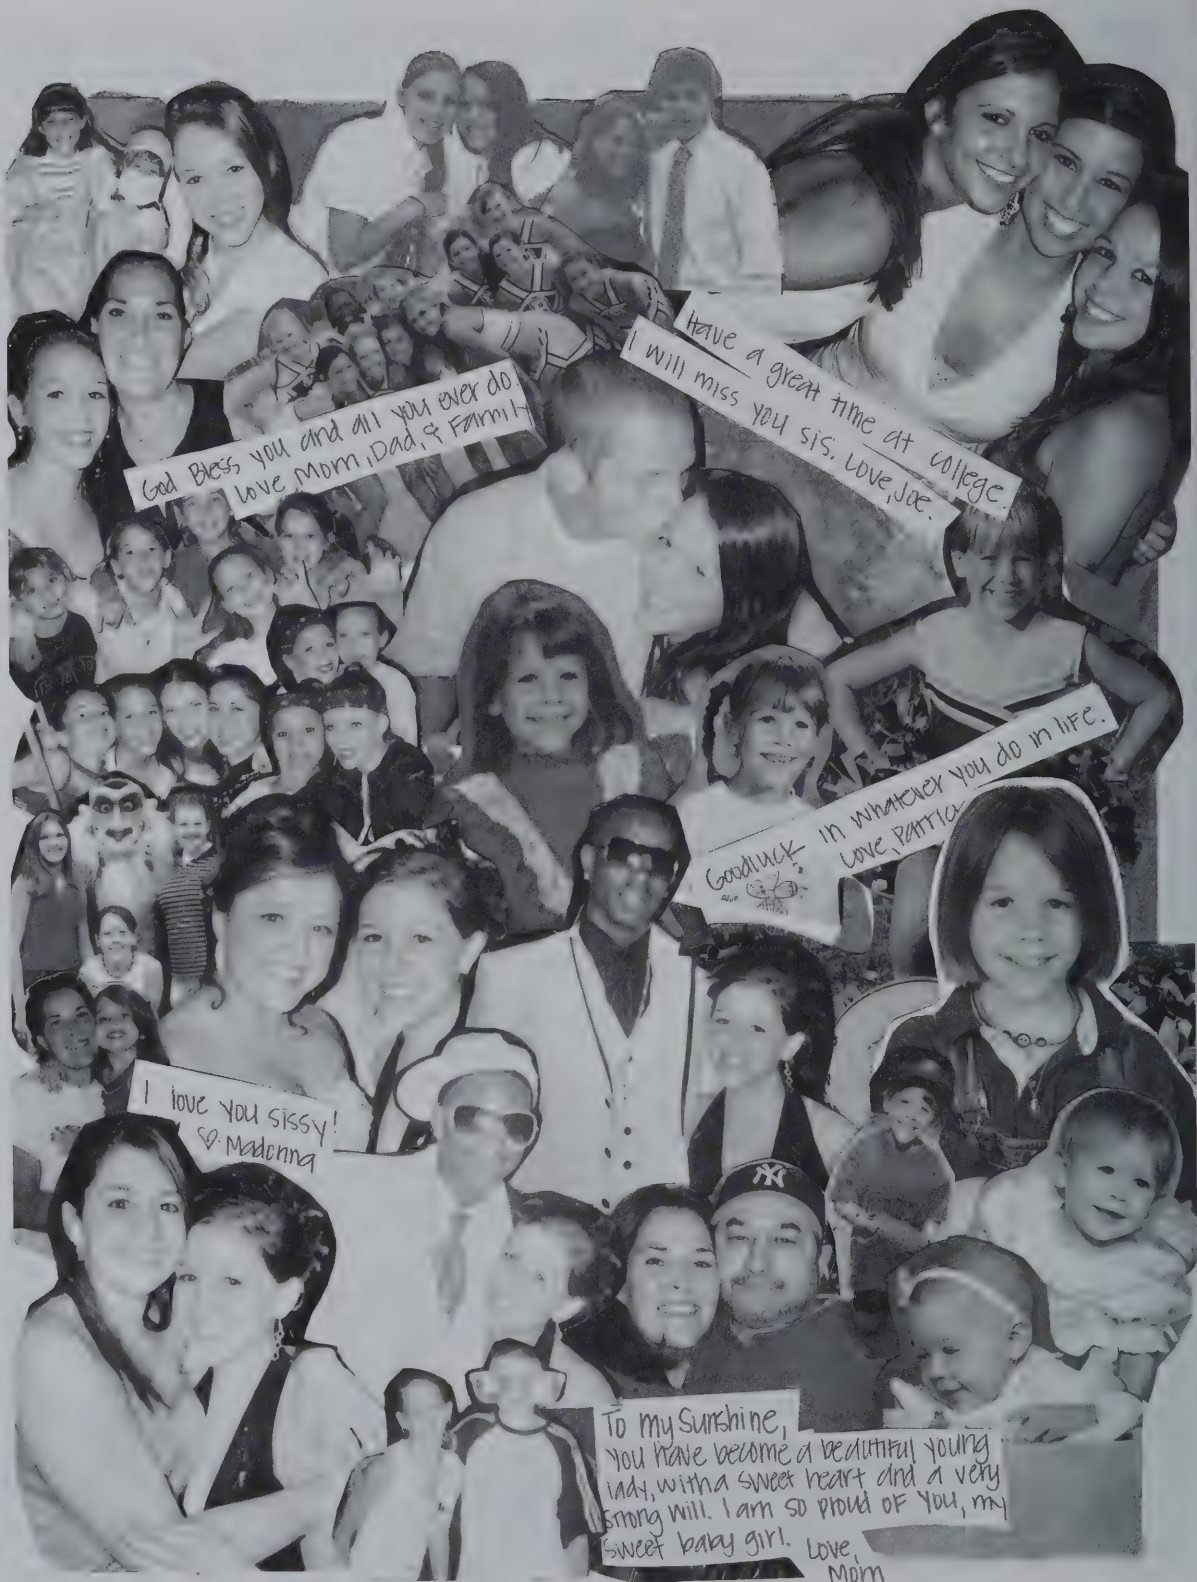

Meggan Rose,

You have been my love child since you were born; now you are my best friend. I'm so proud of you, you're beautiful, sweet and strong in so many ways. You will succeed with your future, and I know it will be filled with love, joy, hope and accomplishments.

*"As childhood friends, we grew up together,
Swearing to be friends forever and ever.
Sometimes we would argue and fight,
Other times we would laugh and stay up all night.
We went from playing with games and toys,
To talking and dreaming about different boys
We will be friends forever
No matter how old we are Because when you're friends forever
You'll never be too far "
Congratulations Cristina, and I know you're going to be successful in everything you do!"*

In Closing...

This year has been full of it's ups and downs. Each day we rebuilt a little more of the things that were broken and decided to overcome all of the little obstacles that tried to hold us back-hold us down. Adversity became our friend, stress became our constant companion, and time became our greatest foe. However, each day we returned to our jobs with enthusiasm, knowing our time to shine would come because we were fighters and we kept our eye on the prize...producing a yearbook all students at Bay High would be proud to keep on his or her shelf for the next fifty years.

If hasn't been easy and we all certainly have more things to learn, but it has been a pleasure to give each of you the gift of memory for this 2006-2007 school year.

Thank you for allowing us this opportunity.
